B.J. Santiago, Inc.
PRINTING COMPANY

BEING SMALL HAS BIG ADVANTAGES!

B.J. Santiago, Inc. Printing Company may be considered a small player in an industry occupied by giant printing corporations like “David in a field filled with Goliaths”...

BJSI can match competition with great drive and dedication whether the job is BIG or small!

“We provide the highest-quality products and services based on the latest trends in printing at very competitive prices. As part of our customer service, I personally can give quick, honest, and expert advice in all stages of production – from design to delivery. My goal is to not only meet, but exceed client’s expectations.

Since 1992, BJ Santiago, Inc. has maintained a strict commitment to customers, a tradition into which we have invested in the latest printing technology, software and talented employees. The company continues to flourish through innovation, flexibility and sheer competitiveness.”

- Benedict S. Santiago Jr., President

*Past President,
Printing Industries Association of the Philippines*

We are BIG
... on experience
and new ideas.

Backed by many years of printing experience, BJSI continues to explore new ideas and innovations. We utilize the power of technology to increase customer satisfaction and profitability.

Our top objective is to move towards global printing ventures by providing superior services and quality printing materials to foreign markets.

Marketing / creative brainstorming

International connections

We are BIG
... on knowledge
and technology

Our people is half of our strength, a vital ingredient to everything that we have achieved so far. We greatly value the expertise, skills and knowledge of every employee in all aspects of our business.

The other half of our strength is our quest for the best machines available - always dependable and efficient, thus time and cost-saving.

Computer-to-plate technology

State-of-the-art printing equipment

We are BIG
... on competitive
pricing.

We believe that quality prints don't need to be very costly, our company prides itself with efficient logistics and close cooperation with every supplier of various print materials to ultimately benefit our customers' accounts.

Running a "tight ship" with smaller overhead makes it possible for us to pass on more savings to our clients.

Quick cost estimating

Working with client's budget / timeline

We are BIG
... on good customer
interactions.

The secret to our success is in sustaining long-term relationships with our clients. Customer satisfaction is what we strive for in every project by delivering excellent materials, while meeting their budget and timetable.

We treat all clients as we wish to be treated - by developing harmony to influence teamwork and productivity.
